

1. What is double thirty-five ?
A. 70

2. Write two hundred and thirty-two to the nearest ten.
A. 230

3. How many eights are there in three hundred and twenty ?
A. 40

4. What is half of sixteen ?
A. 8

5. Write the number that is five less than three thousand.
A. 2995

6. On the screen are three digits. What is the largest number you can write using those digits ?
A. 974

7. How many grams are there in five kilograms ?
A. 5000g

8. How many halves are there in five whole ones ?
A. 10

9. Imagine a cube. How many faces does it have ?
A. 6

10. Add two point five to three point six.
A. 6.1

11. The sequence of numbers on the screen follows the rule double and subtract one. What is the next number ?
A. 33

12. Calculate the difference between three hundred and twenty and seven hundred and thirty ?
A. 410

13. An apple costs nineteen pence and an orange costs eighteen pence. How much are they altogether ?
A. 37p

Key Stage Two
Mental Arithmetic

Transcript - Test Two

14. How many minutes are there in three hours ?

A. 180 minutes

15. Divide twelve by four and then add three.

A. 6

16. Subtract seventy-five from three hundred and twenty-six.

a. 251

17. In a class of 30 children, forty percent are boys. How many boys is that ?

A. 12

18. What number is half way between twenty and thirty-six ?

A. 28

19. In a sale there is fifty percent off everything. A stereo costs sixty pounds in the sale. How much was it before the sale ?

A. £120

20. Multiply forty by thirty.

a. 1200